

- Americans had views on his work, some saw it as Warhol's interpretation of America's lust for wealth and fame. Others saw his art as a celebration of being a culture-rich country and "his own taste for money and fame".
(<https://www.biography.com/people/andy-warhol-9523875>)
- Andy was good at combining art and business which is a big key as to how he got to be so well-known. He talked a lot about how business and making money is an art form and that perceiving your business as art can help gain success.
(<http://time.com/4214244/business-success-andy-warhol/>)
- Warhol was first a very successful commercial illustrator and then lead to screenprinting items and people to become known as a pop art artist. His idea of bringing popular things and people and incorporating them into art still remains, he is still an inspiration.
(<https://www.theartstory.org/artist-warhol-andy.htm>)
- Warhol's work as an illustrator shows similarity to his work as an artist. People say his work was unique and "comic, decorative, and whimsical".
(<https://www.theartstory.org/artist-warhol-andy.htm>)
- During his time, the style of art Warhol created was viewed by society as "true art".
(<https://medium.com/gladwell-outliers-and-success/andy-warhol-and-success-from-camp-bell-soup-to-marilyn-monroe-2edadf139abf>)
- During college, Warhol had a shift in style. He went from bland pieces of clothing to pieces that stood out or were unique or unusual. His style shift got him recognition as a "unique artist rather than an outcast". He was seen as an outcast throughout high school and elementary school because he kept to himself and seemed very boring.
(<https://medium.com/gladwell-outliers-and-success/andy-warhol-and-success-from-camp-bell-soup-to-marilyn-monroe-2edadf139abf>)
- Warhol created pieces that are very recognizable because of his unique portrayal of pop culture.
(<https://medium.com/gladwell-outliers-and-success/andy-warhol-and-success-from-camp-bell-soup-to-marilyn-monroe-2edadf139abf>)
- Andy Warhol experimented and took risks with things like color or design which earned him the stance he took as the most well-known pop art artist of the 20th century. In fact, he was one of the pioneers of the pop art movement.
(<https://medium.com/gladwell-outliers-and-success/andy-warhol-and-success-from-camp-bell-soup-to-marilyn-monroe-2edadf139abf>)
- Warhol's early pieces were inspired by comic strips and advertisements from his previous career as a commercial illustrator.
(<https://medium.com/gladwell-outliers-and-success/andy-warhol-and-success-from-camp-bell-soup-to-marilyn-monroe-2edadf139abf>)
- Warhol was very well-known for the process of screenprinting which he used to create many of his most iconic and recognizable pieces.
(<https://medium.com/gladwell-outliers-and-success/andy-warhol-and-success-from-camp-bell-soup-to-marilyn-monroe-2edadf139abf>)
-